

Meet the BIRDMAN Sean Dooley.
Editor of Birdlife Australia magazine, conservationist, author and birdwatcher.

Please join Friends of Cornish Hill and
Plastic Bag Free
Daylesford on Sunday
23rd July at 10am in the Senior Citizens
Room at the rear of the Daylesford Town Hall.

After following the traditional path to becoming a comedy writer in this country—by studying law at Melbourne University—Sean went on to write for television shows such as Full Frontal, Hamish and Andy and Spicks and Specks and for comedians such as Max Gillies.

In 2002, Sean broke the Australian birdwatching record for seeing the most species of bird in one year; a feat he wrote about in his first book, The Big Twitch. Two books have since followed, one an A to Z of birdwatching, the other, Cooking with Baz, an account of his parents' battles with cancer.

Bookings essential. Light refreshments will be available after the presentation; please RSVP to Margie Thomas on 5324 2112 or email thomato5324@gmail.com